

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
 My loved ones, oh so dear.
 But you see, the Master called me,
 His voice was very clear!
 I had made my reservation
 A heaven bound ticket for one,
 And I knew that He would call me
 When He felt my work was done.
 I know that your hearts are heavy
 Because I have gone away,
 But when the Master called me,
 I knew that I could not stay.
 Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
 My loved ones, oh so dear,
 But, you see, the Master called me
 And, now I'm resting here.
 Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
 And to you all I say
 Just stay in the hands of Jesus
 And we'll meet again someday.

Obituary

Bernard Holloway was born on September 20, 1963 in Aiken, South Carolina to Annie Mae (Harris) Holloway, and James Willie Holloway.

He attended St. Gerard's Roman Catholic School, North Aiken Elementary School, Aiken Junior High School, Schofield Middle School, and graduated from Aiken High School in 1982. He also graduated from Atlantic Technical College. He completed further study at the Mechanical Trades Institute. He was a member of the Plumbers, Pipefitters and Service Technicians Local Union 72 of Atlanta, where he served on the Executive Board.

Though he has no children, he was a humble father figure to many. His humble and kind spirit was often mistaken for weakness.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Deacon James Willie and Annie Mae Harris

Holloway; his maternal grandparents, Deacon Hubert and Mary Ryans Harris; his paternal grandparents, Katherine Andrews Holloway and Doland Holloway.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, one sister, Mary Holloway (Willie Fred) Davis of Riverdale, GA; three brothers, Joseph (Glenda) Holloway of Cedar Grove, NC, Rev. Harris M. (Iris) Holloway of Newark, NJ, and Rev. James P. Holloway, Sr. of Acworth, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

He will be greatly missed by his Serenity Baptist Church and Pure Light Church families.
