

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
 My loved ones, oh so dear.
 But you see, the Master called me,
 His voice was very clear!
 I had made my reservation
 A heaven bound ticket for one,
 And I knew that He would call me
 When He felt my work was done.
 I know that your hearts are heavy
 Because I have gone away,
 But when the Master called me,
 I knew that I could not stay.
 Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
 My loved ones, oh so dear,
 But, you see, the Master called me
 And, now I'm resting here.
 Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
 And to you all I say
 Just stay in the hands of Jesus
 And we'll meet again someday.

Obituary

Willie Fred Davis was born on October 9, 1950 in Old Ellenton, SC to the late Johnnie Mae McGhee Davis and Willie T. Davis. With the community restructuring due to the impending construction of the Savannah River Plant, they relocated to New Ellenton.

He attended the local Elementary Schools of Aiken County, and graduated from the Martha Schofield High School. He was employed by Owens Corning Fiberglass Company for many years, and later Advanced Glassfibers Yarn of Aiken.

He was preceded in death by his father, Willie T. Davis; and his mother, Johnnie Mae McGhee Davis, and one grandson, Devin Crummie; and one brother-in-law, Bernard Holloway.

He leaves to cherish precious memories his wife, Mary Holloway Davis; one son,

Frederick Davis of Riverdale, GA; two daughters, Janika LaFaye (Roland) Jackson of Savannah, GA, and Felicia Davis of Forest Park, GA; five grandchildren, Gideon, Eliah, Kamille, and Jael Jackson all of Savannah, GA, and Ivan Davis of Riverdale, GA; one brother, Tommy R. (Jackie) Davis of New Ellenton, SC; one sister-in-law, Jackie Davis; brothers-in-law, Joseph (Glenda) Holloway, Harris (Iris) Holloway, and James P. Holloway; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.
