Obituary

Roslyn Erica Godfrey was born Roslyn Adams on July 8, 1932 in Bermuda to Pearl Ismay Adams and Walter Wellington Adams. She married Robert Godfrey Sr. on January 14, 1961 and in the early 1960s, they moved to America. Roslyn became a national citizen of America on February 5, 1962. She worked at H.W. Wilsons for over 25 years and worked as a school aid at P.S. 89. She would also frequently babysit kids around her neighborhood. Roslyn passed away in the early morning of June 22, 2021 in The Bronx, New York.

Every person who's had the privilege to be graced by Roslyn's presence undoubtedly knows the impact she had on people's lives. She had a powerful and passionate energy that attracted nothing but genuine happiness and pure love. She was an important figure to many, holding honorable titles such as sister, mother, aunty, and nana and upheld each title with elegance. She was a smart and beautiful woman in every way possible. With a great sense of humor and striking personality, Roslyn naturally had life in her favor. She made friends with ease, loved to travel and eat new foods. She had an adorable laugh and always wore her face in a bright smile. She had so much love for her family and friends but the love her family and friends had for her in return was even greater. Roslyn will always be remembered for her kind and gentle spirit, her bright smile forever imprinted in all of our hearts.

Roslyn is survived by her son, Robert Godfrey Jr., her daughter, Rhonda Godfrey, her grandchildren, Walter Gentle, David Godfrey, Erik Godfrey, Diasia Green, and Monique Godfrey, her sister Lorrain Adams-Walker and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.
Just think of her resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.
