Memories

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Obituary

George W. Gordon, passed away on June 27, 2021. Born on March 30, 1933, in Westmoreland Jamaica and raised in the Longhill District. George met his loving wife, Daphne in his hometown. They got married on June 5, 1966, and enjoyed 55-years of marriage. George and Daphne immigrated to the United States in 1971 where he pursued his career as a skilled carpenter.

This craft was also one of his biggest passions because he could build anything he wanted “without a hammer or a nail,” but with all seriousness he was an exceptional craftsman. Another one of his passions was singing gospel music, playing the banjo and listening to country gospel music which is why he was never seen without his cowboy hat and a 3-piece suit.

George was also a business savvy individual who never made a business deal without his loving wife, Daphne. They had three children: Gerard, Rosemary and Georgianna. Six-grandchild: Ashley, Gisella, Lorenzo,

Elias, Rachel and Amanda;
and two-great grandchildren:
Johnathan and Ariana.

George had a great sense of humor and was never short of a clever comeback; this trait was loved by everyone who knew him. Proverbs 17:22 tells us, "A merry heart doeth good like medicine." He was loved by his family and will never be forgotten because our minds will always talk to him, our hearts will always look for his; but our Souls know that he's at Peace with God.
