Obituary

Ms. Rachel Williams affectionately known as “Gertch” and “Doink” was born on June 7 1963. She was born to Josephine Brown and Harlee Green Sr who preceded her in death. Rachel grew up in Patterson Projects along with her siblings Gerald aka Butch, Valerie, and Vera who also preceded her in death along with her remaining siblings, Thomas and Marcia. She spent most of her childhood in Patterson and gained a host of lifetime friends. After graduating Morris High School she spent most of her adulthood working and caring for her two children Rachelle & Darryl. Her children and grandchildren were her everything and if it was up to her they would never leave their nest, her home.

Rachel's life revolved around her family - she loved her family very much and enjoyed spending quality time with her children & grandchildren. Rachel was known for her unique sense of style, different hairstyles and most of all her sense of humor. If you had the opportunity to be in her presence and experience her witty personality- consider yourself lucky. She lit up every room she walked in, it was hard to be down around her. Rachel was such a loving and compassionate person who always loaned an ear when needed and was non-judgmental. She was an excellent cook known for her famous lasagna which she lovingly made for whoever requested it. She lived a good life and was a true fighter until her very last days here on earth. She leaves to mourn her daughter Rachelle Williams and her son Darryl Paulk Jr., her grandchildren Davonte Williams, Emmanuel Myers, Sincere Williams, Demi - Zoe Williams, and Shiloh Williams and her two siblings, Thomas Williams and Marcia Williams, and a host of family, friends, nieces and nephews.

Lovingly,
The Family

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found now peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will I miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
don't lengthen your time with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now – He set me free.
