

To those I love and those who love me,
 When I am gone, release me, let me go.
 I have so many things to see and do.
 You mustn' tie yourself to me in tears,
 Be happy that we had so many years.
 I gave to you my love, you can only guess
 How much you gave to me in happiness.
 I thank you for the love each has shown,
 But now it's time I travelled on alone.
 So, grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
 Then let your grief be comforted by trust,
 It's only for a while that we must part,
 So, bless the memories within your heart
 I won't be far away, for life goes on.
 So, if you need me, call and I will come.
 Though you can't see or touch me I'll be near
 And if you listen with your heart you'll hear,
 All my love around you, soft and clear,
 And when you must come this way alone.
 I'll greet you with a smile
 And "Welcome Home."

Willie James West – dedicated father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend, finished his work on this earth and returned home to His Heavenly Father on Sunday, June 20, 2021.

He was born on November 22, 1954, to the parentage of the late Agnes and Ernest West St. in Americus, GA. He was educated in the Sumter County GA school system. He was married in Holy Matrimony to Cynthia Ann Kimbrough. To this union, one child was born.

In the late 70s, Willie decided to move from Americus, GA and make his home in Newark, NJ. He worked as a skilled laborer most of his life.

Each year he had a huge garden on 7th Street. He thought his barbecue was the best and had no issue with telling you if thought your barbecue did not live up to his standards. His big heart and even bigger laugh will be great missed by all that knew him.
