No more pain, no more suffering, free from the life that judges and condemns you. Now you are free and in a better place loved. Many 18 years spent with you were the most cherishable, most expensive and the most delicate times together. From all the fighting trouble, commotion and most importantly being there for one another.

Now it feels unreal, still trying to process everything knowing that you won't be by my side physically. It hurts to see you go but I Vanessa, I will be strong and make the best out of this, to make you proud. God knows why he decided to take you away from this wicked world called Earth.

See You Soon! I love you so much.

Hey Benneth, thank you so much for the 18 years of your life that you shared with me. We all don't understand the God we serve or why He do the things He do. It hurts me so much to say that your gone. But I know your in a better place with our Father in heaven. Words can't explain how much I miss you. From all the fighting that made us brothers and the good times that made us family. From all three of us doing everything together as boys to all four of us spending quality time as siblings. My promise to is that your name will never be forgotten. So may you rest in perfect peace my lovely brother. I'll see you when my time comes. I truly with all my heart love you.

My lovely brother, I didn't know death would depart you from our arms so early at a very tender age when you're just beginning your manhood. God knows how much I miss you. The days I walk in your room after you come back from work and we relax and talk about life, the good and the bad. The days we fought and argue exchanging violent words. We always made up and had fun all the time play raping together, boxing together, playing video games together and even talking about your weakness talking to girls. I'm so glad we were on good terms. Thank you for 18 years of your life I will tell you the rest of my journey when I see you in heaven I love you.

*My sweet baby Chikwaka,
Your heart and strength has failed you!
Death takes the body
God takes the soul
Our mind holds the memories.
Our heart keeps the love
Our faith lets us know we will meet again.
Love is a bond that death cannot part.
Gone from my arms, but still held in my heart.*

- Mom -

*You have fought the good fight,
You finished the race, you have kept the faith,
Henceforth there is laid up for you in heaven,
The crown of righteousness!!!*

- 2 Timothy 4:7 -

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
