Wayne was born and raised in Brownsville Brooklyn, where he also attended school and Graduated from Carnarsie High. Wayne was a NYC taxi driver, which he often told stories about driving all over the city and how it made him a very experienced driver, which he was. Wayne had a thing about always looking sharp, he was handsome, charismatic, a smooth talker. Wayne worked many years as a presser in the Dry cleaning Business, before becoming an officer with the New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation. A Job that took him through the boroughs, of the city he Loved. He worked at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, Lincoln Hospital, North Central and retired from Jacobi Medical Center in the Bronx. He proudly served 25+ for New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation and retired a Sergeant. Wayne enjoyed his job and he Loved his family. He was an avid outdoorsman, a love he got from his step father and passed on to his family. Wayne loved to travel, go fishing, camping, play paddle ball, go on family bbq's and to the beach, the Man was serious about his Tan. Wayne Loved his Animals. Wayne was as cool as a summer nights breeze, just enough and right on time. He was always a listening ear with a wealth of knowledge and life lessons a plenty, boy could he talk. But his conversations were engaging, entertaining, and just what the Dr. ordered. In life he had his struggles, as do we all, but he overcame his battles with sickness, surgeries, cancer, with the Love and Support of Family and his Tremendous Faith in God. He watched multiple programs on the television and his phone, almost simultaneously, every Sunday, without skipping a beat, he liked a plethora of messages. Wayne was hip and in the know, he was truly a man of the times. Wayne Loved Boxing, Basketball, Football, often hosting boxing watch parties with his Sons and friends. He Loved to watch Star Trek, Supernatural, The walking dead, play pitty pat, for money of course, even with the kids. Wayne was truly an Iron Man, as solid as they come, and lived by the old saying : One Day, At A Time. That's All You Can Ask And All You Can Give. He was a star whose light on life will forever shine on the hearts of those who had the privilege to know and love him.

A Letter From Heaven

Perhaps you aren't ready yet, to have to say good-bye .. Perhaps you've thought of things you wish you'd said .. well, so have I. For one thing, I'd have told you not to worry about me .. I'm with the Lord in Heaven now, you knew that's where I'd be. I'm sorry that you're feeling sad, for I'm so happy now .. I've asked the Lord to ease the hurt, and comfort you somehow. It's hard at the beginning, but I know you'll make it through .. I hope it helps to know that, I'll be waiting here for you.
