Obituary

Marquis Davon McLamb was born on December 14, 1985 to Towanda McLamb at Orange Memorial Hospital in Orange, NJ.

Marquis attended the Newark Public School System. Marquis worked in Construction but his passion was music. Marquis loved to rap, play football and tell jokes. He loved to make people laugh and smile. Marquis had an affectionate smile that we will miss dearly. Marquis could light up a dark room with his joy of life and family. He was indeed the life of the party!

Marquis loved spending time with his children. His children was his most profound blessing, they brought so much joy to his life.

Marquis leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Towanda McLamb of Newark, NJ; grandmother, Gloria McLamb of Orange, NJ; grandfather, Clayton McLamb (Priscilla) of North Carolina; children, two sons, Gerard Davis and Jakis McLamb, three daughters, Jakia Davis, Janya McLamb and Jakala McLamb all of Newark, NJ; sisters, Louvenia McLamb, Alizaijah McLamb and Mariah McLamb and Robin McLamb; one niece, Layla McLamb; aunts Beverly Knight (Alan) and Kimberly McLamb of Newark, NJ. Marquis was preceded in death by his aunt Pamela Jackson and cousin Keyontae McLamb. Also Marquis leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, godchildren, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it up with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free!
