

Someday, Someday I'll Go Where Jesus Is

Someday, Someday, I'll go where Jesus is (rept 2x)

I'll be caught up to meet Him

Caught up to Greet Him

Joy and happiness

Peace is mine

Tell the story of His Glory

Caught up to meet Him in the air!

Goodbye world! I stay no longer with you

Goodbye pleasures of sin!

I stay no longer with you!

I made up my mind to go God's way !

The rest of my life!

I made up my mind !

To go God's way!

The rest of my life!

When He calls me!

I will answer!

When He calls me

I will answer

When He calls me!

I will answer!

I'll be somewhere listening for my name!

Heaven's Jubilee

*Some glad morning we shall see, Jesus in the air
Coming after you and me, joy is ours to share
What rejoicing there will be, when the Saints shall rise
Headed for that jubilee, yonder in the skies*

*Chorus, Oh what singing, oh what shouting
On that happy morning when we all shall rise
Oh what glory, Hallelujah
When we meet our blessed Savior in the skies*

*Seems that now I almost see, all the sinned ded
Rising for that jubilee, that is just ahead
In the twinkling of an eye, changed with them to be
All the living saints to fly, to that jubilee.*

(Chorus)

*When with all that heavenly host, we begin to sing
Singing in the Holy Ghost, how the heavens will ring
Millions there will join the song with them we shall be
Praising Christ through ages long, heaven's jubilee.*

(Chorus)

ORDER OF SERVICE

On Wednesday, March 18, 1956, in Kingston, Jamaica, Marlene Josephine Isaacs was bestowed with the gift of life to her father the late Vivian Woodstock and her mother the late Ivy Joseph. Marlene was the fourth of seven children and spent much of her early formative years growing up in Downtown Kingston in a household rooted in love, compassion, and nurture. As she and her siblings grew older and started their own families, Marlene formed a more profound bond with her brother, Clinton. They often corresponded through phone calls sharing many stories pertaining to their lives and experiences.

Marlene attended St. Michael's School where she quickly developed an avid interest in the Informal Commercial Importer profession. This interest cultivated her passion of buying and selling wares from a variety of markets. As such, shortly after completing her education at St. Michael's, Marlene chose to pursue her passion and became an Informal Commercial Importer. This profession fostered her interpersonal, mathematical, and business-related skills. Through her travels throughout the Caribbean to places such as Curacao she was able to further hone these skills regarding the purchase and sale of merchandise and inspire those around her with her lived experiences.

On June 23, 1972, Marlene gave birth to her first child Christopher Campbell with whom she shared an intrinsic spiritual connection. She often referred to him as Peter and while in his presence frequently hummed the song, "While you are praying to Jesus drop in a prayer for me." Through her actions, Marlene showed Christopher the importance of fostering a relationship with the Lord which motivated Christopher to cultivate his own relationship with God.

Marlene then met the late Louis George Isaacs and on December 20, 1980, Marlene and Louis got married. Throughout this relationship Marlene gave birth to her son Kirk Isaacs and daughter Janice Isaacs-Simon, both of whom she offered endless love and support by teaching them to be kind-hearted and hard-working. She made sure their uniforms were freshly pressed and that they were always prepared for school. Marlene was very protective of her children as she walked them to and from school daily. Through her friendly and loving personality Marlene soon became a parent support within her children's elementary schools to both parents and students alike.

Marlene later dedicated her life to the service of the Lord and for 25 years diligently kept this service. She would always take the opportunity to minister to all those with whom she came into contact. Moreover, Marlene was always there to provide anyone with a word of encouragement when they were feeling down or lost. One could always rely on Marlene to provide a word that would lift one's spirit. Through her relationship with God, Marlene understood that nothing was greater or more powerful than her Heavenly Father. As such, she would always encourage those who sought her counsel, comfort, and wisdom to immerse themselves in prayer and leave their burdens in the strong, unwavering, and capable hands of God. Marlene blessed and nourished all those with whom she met by instilling within them God's holy words and in doing so, Marlene truly showed us all the meaning of being a true disciple committed to the kingdom of God.

On June 23, 2021 Marlene Josephine Isaacs suddenly passed away in her New York residence. Her death left her children Christopher Campbell, Kirk Isaacs, and Janice Isaacs-Simon; her grandchildren Jeremiah, Christina, Kyler, and Kaeley, her dearest family members, friends, the members of her church's ministry and all others who grieve her loss with many questions and heart-wrenching ache. However, we can all take comfort in the essence of her ministry and teachings by pulling strength and guidance from Psalms 121 and doing as the Psalms dictates: keep our eyes upon the hills and know and trust that our help cometh from the Lord.

We as her ministry and her people will continue her legacy today and onward by living a life of love, by helping those from all walks of life and by committing the Lord's word in our actions and in our spirits. Marlene Josephine Issacs thank you for your hard work, your diligence, and your teachings. You are an inspiration to us all and you represent the very best of us. Thank you for being a part of all our lives and for instilling within us the importance of developing and maintaining a relationship with our Heavenly Father. We thank you and we love you! May your soul rest in peace! God Bless!
