Obituary

This is the story of Lorna Angela Carr also known as "Jewel" or "Lorna Banana". Lorna was a wonderful, kind and loyal woman who is greatly loved, missed and will always be cherished. Lorna will forever be an amazing Sister, Aunt and Friend.

Lorna's story starts on January 10, 1952, the second oldest child to Charlie and Alice Carr (deceased). Lorna was born on the beautiful Island of Jamaica, in the parish of St. Ann. While in Jamaica, she attended Carron Hall Vocational High School where her focus was primarily in the Culinary Arts. This is where she developed her passion for cooking and decorating. She did not get to finish her high school studies in Jamaica because she migrated to the United States, where she resided in the Bronx, New York. In the United States Lorna attended Taft High School and continued her education at Hunter College.

Lorna's love for fashion led her to Macy's Department Store where she started out in one of the specialty café's and later transitioned to Sales Associate. She was very conscientious, devoted and dependable. She took great pride in her work utilizing her superb organizational, creative and visual skills. At Macy's she developed lifetime friendships such as her "Sunday Crew".

Lorna was often the personal shopper for family and friends because of her great sense of style. She always put a lot of thought and care into gift giving especially during Christmas, her favorite holiday. Her gifts were impeccably wrapped. She also looked forward to Thanksgiving, where she showed off her culinary skills with her brother "Charles", carrying on her mother's tradition of creating decadent dishes.

Sadly, in late December 2020, Lorna became ill and succumbed to her illness on July 3rd, 2021. She will be deeply and dearly missed, and wonderfully remembered by her sisters, Cynthia and Marjorie, brother Charlie, niece Ayanna, grand-nephew Amani and a host of family and friends.

May Lorna's soul find peace and rest in her Savior and Lord.

To Say Goodbye

To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.
