Obituary

Angelo Williams, better known as “Shandu”, was born to Frank Edward Williams and the late Betty Zuell in the Bronx, New York on December 8, 1963.

Angelo's life began on Belmont Avenue, where he was known as Hercules because of him being CHUNKY lol. But, on the other hand, he and his brothers were also called the “Three Stooges”. One thing he would always boast about to his oldest brother Franklin, is that he had the fastest Go-Kart on the block.

He graduated from upstate Hudson Valley High School and went on to work for NYC Department of Education as a Food Distributor and an Industrial Vent Cleaner.

Angelo loved his family dearly and always looked forward to spending time with his father and siblings. He was the fourth of seven siblings. They are dearly mentioned Tony and Reginald (predeceased), Franklin, Francine, Patrick, and Patricia.

Shandu was many things to many people. His intelligence, kindness and experiences were his jewels that he shared with all. He took time talking to many seniors in the neighborhood and lending a helping hand to assist with their errands. He would offer advice and time to children who were seeking a caring shoulder to lean on. He also, knew these dangerous streets were tough and no child should truly be left alone. It brought him joy to see a kid do well and develop into a responsible adult.

Angelo, derived this belovedness for people because of his strong faith. His kind words and deeds touched many people. “LOVE YOUR LORD and you can truly LOVE OTHERS”.

To cherish his memory Angelo leaves his loving fiancé Danette Bradley; nieces and nephews, Reggie, Elquinn, Brandon, Tiffany, Andre, Vanessa, T.J. Asia, Shaquasia, Shanquill, Shantell, Startasia, Shaheim, Raquan, Dominick and Tyshawn; great-nieces and nephews, Elquinn Jr., Janya DeAndre, Quinton, Justice, Andrell, Austin, August, Stirling; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, (Kenny, Ronnie, Sandra), sister-in-law, Loretta Williams and special friends; also, Sammy and Justin who were like sons to Angelo.

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."
