

Soft Whispers From Heaven

*I know your heart is hurting
When I left this world without you.
It would never be the right time;
We love we knew this to be true.*

*I know how much you miss me
I watched you kneel and pray;
I saw the tears that fell,
Ever since I passed away.*

*I long to bring you comfort,
I'm in peace, my pain is gone.
I send a whisper in each soft breeze,
"My loved ones, please go on."*

*As I look down from Heaven
There's place beyond compare;
No tears, no pain, no suffering,
And love is everywhere.*

*Please do not be troubled,
There is no need to cry.
I've gone to be with Him;
I really didn't die.*

Our Thanks To You

*There was not a card in any store that said what we wanted it to say;
That's why we all decided to express our love in this way.
Thank you will NEVER be enough, to say to people like you;
Because there is simply no other one, who DID as you have done!!
Time will only tell, what the future holds or brings,
But RIGHT NOW, we want to say you did some WONDERFUL Things!!
Each one of you have been more than KIND, because PEOPLE like you are hard to find,
Thank you for your concern and service, thank you for your food, cards, flowers and care,
Thank you for your donations, love offerings and prayers;
Your thoughtfulness will long be remembered
For years and years and years!!!*

Reflections of Life

Eula Mae Robinson Frierson, the thirteenth child of the late Mr. Lavette and Mrs. Lula Chapman Robinson, known to her family as “Peggy Ann” or “Peg Ann”, was born December 27, 1940 in Florence, South Carolina.

Peggy attended the Holmes Elementary School from the grades 1 through 6 under the leadership of James A. Miller Principal. At Holmes ES, she participated in the Annual May Day Festivities. From grades 7 – 9, she attended the Wilson Junior High School. Upon the completion of Junior High, she transferred to Wilson High School graduating in the Class of 1959 under the leadership of Dr. Gerard A. Anderson, Principal. She along with her niece, Maxine Brown, they were placed in the honor’s track throughout their high school days. In high school, Peggy was a member of the Wilson High School Marching Band under leadership of Mr. Sidney B. Young serving as a majorette.

As a child, Peggy attended and later joined the Trinity Baptist Church under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. James J. Abney. While at Trinity, she along with her sisters served on the Youth Usher Board. Also, she participated in other activities: Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, Junior Missionary Society, and Youth Choir.

After graduating from high school, she moved to Newark, New Jersey.

On October 1, 1960, Peggy was joined in holy matrimony to Morgan Frierson, Jr. of Effingham, South Carolina. To this union, one daughter was born Faye Fintress. Morgan made his transition into eternal rest on November 16, 2019.

After Morgan and Peggy were married, they lived in Hackensack, New Jersey. Later, the couple moved to Newark, New Jersey. She began employment with the Cardinal Glove company until 1969.

Peggy was a housewife after the birth of her daughter, Faye. On January 15, 1979, she returned to work at Goody Hair Products, Inc, Kearney, New Jersey until December 1989. On June 4, 1990, Peggy gained employment with Schering Plough Pharmaceuticals until her retirement in June 2004.

Peggy attended Hopewell Baptist Church and later, she and her family attended Abyssinian Baptist Church, Newark, New Jersey under the late Rev. Dr. Horace P. Sharper.

Peggy made her transition on July 9, 2021 at St. Barnabas Hospital after a brief illness.

Peggy leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted daughter, Ms. Faye Fintress Frierson of the home; a nephew like a son, Mr. Wellington Wilder, Jr. of Washington, DC; 2 caring nieces, Ms. Debra V. Robinson of Hillside, New Jersey and Ms. Rhonda R. Andrews of Roselle, New Jersey; 1 devoted brother-in-law, Mr. Emmett and his wife, Mrs. Regina Frierson of Covington, Georgia; 1 sisters-in-law, Mrs. Willie Mae Robinson of Baltimore, Maryland; two special grand nephews, Derrick L. Curry of Bloomfield, New Jersey and Kenneth L. Mason III of Hillside, New Jersey; other nieces, nephews; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, great-great nieces, great-great nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

Seven sisters: Mrs. Ola M. Wilder, Mrs. Beatrice Cowards, Mrs. Rebecca McClain, Mrs. Betty F. Shorter, Mrs. Ann M. (Barbara Jean) Andrews, Miss Evelyn E. Robinson & Mrs. Delores Gunter; five brothers: Lavette Robinson, Jr., Mr. Joseph Robinson, Mr. Edward G. Robinson and Mr. Jacob Robinson; two nieces, like sisters: Mrs. Maxine B. Jackson and Mrs. Thomasina B. Frierson all preceded her in death.

If Roses Grow In Heaven

*If Roses grow in Heaven Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.*

Tell her that I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile.

*Because remembering her is easy, I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.*

I Love and Miss You Mom...Love, Faye
