Obituary

Nancy Mae Robinson was born on August 2, 1941 in Conway, South Carolina. Nancy was predeceased by her parents, Maceo and Louise. Her siblings are brothers, Jimmy and Walter and sister, Mary Louise.

Nancy went to school in Conway from grade school through high school. She graduated in 1958 and later moved to New York City. She worked for the New York City Compensation Board, starting as an entry level clerk and 27 years later retiring as one of their top supervisors.

Nancy is survived by: her four children, Alvin (Brenda), Debbie, Murice (Mercedes) and Warren (Tomasina); grandsons, Dario, Nate, Denzel and Thomas; an uncle; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends who respected her and loved her deeply.

Nancy was always a special loving, caring and giving person when it came to people, friends and family.

Nancy's memories will always be cherished. May God rest her soul.

Recessional

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
