Obituary

Our Dearly Beloved Rosa Bell McBride, Rosa (Roe) will always be known as a dedicated wife, working mother, and a loving aunt to all her nieces, nephews, friends, and others who entered her life. She was devoted to her faith until she transitioned on Thursday, July 15, 2021, at Jamaica Hospital in Queens, New York.

Born in Sumter, South Carolina, on November 1, 1936, she was the seventh of eight children born to the late Heatley Williams and Blanche Burgess Williams.

Rosa attended the South Carolina local school district until she met Moultrie McBride. At this point in her life, she knew her life would change dramatically. She moved from South Carolina to the Big City of New York. A Southern girl making a huge transition, getting ready to tackle the Big City.

She was employed throughout New York City working as a Caregiver, giving care for the City of New York. At the same time, she was always helping families, friends and steadfast in focusing on keeping her family close for so many years.

Rosa departed from us to be with God knowing she has a new assignment. Her jovial attitude about life whereas she wants us to keep everybody laughing was phenomenal. She will be missed, and cherished memories of her existence will forever be in our hearts and minds.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by three brothers James Williams, Elijah Williams, Hazel Rose, and one sister, Veronese M. Lowery.

She married Moultrie McBride on September 21, 1953, and 3 children were born to that union, Moultrina McBride, Gloria McBride, and Gale McBride Moore (Percy).

Precious memories will be cherished by husband Moultrie McBride, three daughters: Moultrina McBride, Gloria McBride, Gale McBride Moore (Percy). One sister Janie Greene (Robert) a host of sister-in-law's, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
