Obituary

Today we celebrate the life of Terrence Kevin Rayzer, born on Tuesday, April 14, 1953 in New York City. He returned to the Loving Arms of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Friday July 9, 2021 after a long illness.

Terrence was the third of four sons born to the union of the late John Lee Rayzer Sr. and Ivern Mae Burch. Terrence was preceded in death by brothers Eugene (Mickey), John Lee, Jr., Thedrus Charles, sister Jeanette Williams & his beloved favorite aunt Ruth ("Auntie" Dolly) Summers.

Terrence served as a member of Crenshaw Christian Center.

He received his education in the NYC Board of Education. For a period of time he worked as a teacher's aide for the Board of Education. At a young age Terrence had superior skills in driving. From tractor-trailers to cars, he received his CLD license. Continuing in that field he became a school bus driver for many years until his health began to fail.

During his younger years he became interested in music and became a phenomenal drummer. Cultivating his musical skill set to include piano, record engineering and began producing young and up and coming artists. Terrence began writing & producing songs, and making beats became his passion. At K-Rock recording studios in the Bronx he worked with up and coming artists like Rapper Fat Joe, in the early stages of their careers. Other musical collaborations included Larry Blackmon of Cameo and Larry Pebbles of Jhamila.

Terrance also known as 'Terry' was a loving son, brother, uncle and friend to all. He left a positive impression on everyone who met him.

Left to cherish his memory brother Eric Sean Rayzer of New York City, nephews John Lee Rayzer III, of Jersey City NJ, Thedrus Charles Rayzer, of Washington DC, and Brandon B'Shar Rayzer Moore of Louisville Kentucky. A special mention to longtime friends, musical comrade Adrienne Jones-Miley, his ride or die constant Alberta Daniels, running buddy's Mark Jones and James Christian.

Terrence leaves to cherish his love & memory a host of loving great nieces, nephews, cousins and friends too numerous to name.

With Love, The Family

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
