Reflections of Life

The life story of Tracey L Harris Sr was completed on July 8, 2021. He was only 51 years of age and just as full of life and spirit as any young-hearted man.

At the age of 22 he became husband to Michelle Harris, and later became father to children Angelique, Tracey Jr, and Deja Harris. He was self-employed, diligent in his work. When he was not working he was very feverish in searching for the truth to life and its mysteries.

Passion, witty humor, and charisma vividly painted Tracey's personality. Any given day he could be found cracking off-the-wall jokes, or researching with fervor any question or concern that arose in his mind, heart, soul, or spirit. Those who knew him often felt better after talking with him, as he was an astute listener, an intuitive speaker, and a well-timed comedian.

Tracey Sr was preceded in eternal rest by his father Calvin Harris I, his mother Ruth Harris, his brothers Jonathan and Richard. He is survived by his wife of 29 years, Michelle Harris, his Angelique, Tracey Jr, and Deja Harris, and his brother Calvin Harris II, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

(To Remember And Embrace)

*Ever-present and persistent you were as a father.
It's obvious you were a one-of-a-kind brother.
You taught us the things you knew to be proper,
And you always did right by your mother.*

*You served many years as a beloved spouse.
Anything in your power you did to provide.
You were respected as the man of the house.
For us you did what we needed to survive.*

*Family and friends have surrounded you as a mass.
We've gathered together in tears and slant rhymes.
We've gathered together for your home-going, alas.
We've gathered together long before your time.*

*Relieved of your duties, brought to an impasse,
That you're relieved of all your pains is all we now ask.*

Acknowledgement
