Her Life's Journey

Carrie Jacobs was born on April 7, 1945 in New York City to: John and Sadie Johnson. She attended the New York City School System. Once out of school, her interest was in perfume fragrances, cosmetics and makeup. So she pursued job opportunities in the above mentioned areas. Carrie lived and worked in New York City all her adult life. 35 years ago, Carrie married Dossie Jacobs, and eventually changed her last name from Johnson to Jacobs. After she got married, Carrie stopped working and became a housewife. Her main occupation became caring for her family and managing household affairs. She remained married to Dossie Jacobs to the present. Carrie never had any children of her own, but she has always been a mother figure to her sisters, brothers, nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews. Carrie was a very caring and giving person she would neglect herself to give her family.

Sister Carrie had a certain image of the way the world should be, and she strived to achieve that image. Although the world is not a perfect place, Carrie would not stop giving her time, energy and money to make things better. As an Optimus, she saw the world in a different light than others. Carrie was a loner and preferred to stay to herself. She was not one to actively seek out human interaction. However! Above all, Carrie was a Christian woman who deeply and endlessly loved the Lord but because she was a loner, she didn't go to church. On July 14, 2021 she answered her Heavenly Father's call to rest. There is no need to worry and wonder, for meeting her behind Heaven's Gate is her mother and father: John and Sadie Johnson, her brother: John Jr. Johnson, and her sister: Elizabeth Nicholas to rejoice her memory.

She leaves behind: her husband Dossie Jacobs, 2 sisters: Janice Johnson and Dolores Johnson; 2 brothers: Clarence Johnson and Leroy Johnson, 3 nieces: Tamika Ayers, Latoya Thompson and Dolores Nicholas, 2 nephews: Roger Rabsatt and Andrew Nicholas and a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins, other family and friends.

I'm Resting

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I turned my back and left it all, to answer God's Heavenly call.
I could not stay another day, to laugh, love or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, cause I don't have another day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered Joy.
A Friendship shared, a laugh a kiss, Oh Yes, these things I too will miss. Be not bothered with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heads and share with me.
For you see, I'm resting and I'm Free.

Expressions of Gratitude

There are no words to express our appreciation and gratitude for the outpouring of endless love and support we have received during this very difficult time. It warmed our hearts to know that there are people ready to offer their support, should we need it. It was a reminder that we are not alone in this, that others too are experiencing a loss. We are thankful to have people with which we can share this burden, grieving, and healing as one.

Reflections

Your radiance and kindness is always with us, in thought and in prayer. The spiritual reflection for Christian believers is the process of thinking, pondering or reflecting on our love one. Spiritual reflection transforms our spiritual life, matures our faith, and improves nursing practice by applying God's word.
