Obituary

Nicholas Hugh Brown was born on July 6, 1956 in Kingston, Jamaica to the late Norman and Berthlyn Brown. He was third in line of their four children. Nicholas grew up in Kingston and was the fun loving yet trouble maker of the bunch keeping his father hard at work when he tried to keep him in check but he remained disciplined. Over the years he became a music lover and on Saturdays, he would religiously clean his vinyl records and play them aloud on his huge stereo. It was always a treat.

Nicholas or as he was fondly known, Las, immigrated to the US, New York in 1994 where he worked as an Electrician and Contractor. He was known to be a genius when it comes to working with his hands and was often called a jack of all trades. He was highly skilled and was not afraid of hard work. Las was not a flashy person but a proud man who always took pride in his appearance and if he cared for you, you knew it. Las loved children and made every effort to ensure that all children in his life knew they were loved by him.

On July 25, 2021 in his hometown of Mount Vernon, New York at the age of 65, he came to the end of his watch and was called home. He is survived by his estranged wife Patricia, his three (3) children Ricardo in NY, Jodyann (Marlon) in Jamaica and Emelio in Canada, his sisters Angela and Andrea, his brother Patrick (Mary), his niece Juliet, grandchildren Jada, Adryana, Ajhani, Rihanna, Imani, Marlon, four nephews, other families and a host of long time friends. He will be missed!

Asleep

I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be, I thank God because He came for me.
-Emily Dickinson
