

Casseta Robe was born in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica on June 2, 1945, to the late Doris Ashman and Edward Anglin. She was a lifelong resident of Hillside, New Jersey and a devout member of St. Paul's Baptist Church in Montclair, New Jersey. She was a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) at the Daughters of Israel Nursing home in West Orange for over 25 years. Passionate, Hard-working and Dedicated are phrases that best characterize her work ethic.

Casseta attended St. Leonard's High School in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica and later completed her certification as a CNA here in New Jersey. Cass lived a fulfilling life. On June 14, 1970, she married Nathaniel A. Robe, Jr. and enjoyed many years of happiness with him until her passing. From this union, they were blessed with three children: Carol, Marcus and David. Before her marriage, she was also blessed with her first born son, Keith Anglin.

Cass was a Christian woman who would often spend her time donating milk to the children's program weekly at her church. She simply understood the importance of giving back and helping in the community where she could. She was a consistent provider for everyone often extending a helping hand to family and friends. Always making sure that everyone had what they needed and never hesitating to provide her wisdom. Cass loved her family and could often be found spending quality time with her grandchildren, whom were the love of her life.

After a courageous battle with cancer, she passed away in the comfort of her beloved home on July 29, 2021 with her husband by her side.

She is survived by her husband, Nathaniel A. Robe, Jr.; son Keith; son David; daughter Carol; daughter-in-law Carmen and daughter-in-law Sherane Robe. She also was preceded in death by her son Marcus, loving known as Charlie. She leaves behind a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, as well as other close family and friends to fondly remember her here, in the United States, Jamaica and England.
