Obituary

Ms. Betty Moore Gadsden was born April 22, 1941 in Macon, Georgia (Jones County) to the late Mr. Romalice Moore Sr. and Mrs. Minnie Patterson Moore.

She was preceded in death by three sisters and one brother.

She was educated and graduated from Maggie Califf in Gray, Georgia. Shortly after graduation, she moved to Bronx, New York where she met and married the late Mr. Clarence D. Gadsden Sr. To that union, one son was born. She worked at M & G Diner for many years in New York alongside her sister, the late Mrs. Minnie Gadsden who was also the owner.

In her younger years, she loved to travel home to Georgia to visit her family. She enjoyed bowling and dancing. People would always say she had those "serious" eyes which she passed on to her son, Clarence.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories; a dedicated & devoted son who loved her so dearly, Mr. Clarence D. Gadsden Jr. of Hollis, NY; one sister, Ms. Elestine Gainey of Macon, Ga; one sister-in-law, Ms. Jean Gadsden of New York; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

"Miss Me, But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little bit, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let me go
