Obituary

Lottie Clark was born on September 13, 1938, in Richland County, Eastover, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Elijah Roberts and Mamie Branch Roberts. She was the eighth child born to this union. On August 8, 2021, Lottie departed her earthly life following an extended illness.

Lottie was a member of the Pilgrim Baptist Church in Lugoff, South Carolina. At an early age, she accepted Jesus as her personal savior. She was educated in the Richland County Public School system. There she received her High School Diploma.

Lottie relocated to Richmond, Virginia in 1957. She stayed there for a number of years then onto New York to live. She married her long-time sweetheart, Richard Clark and from this union 3 sons were born. Richard Jr (preceded her in death), Wayne and Dion.

Lottie worked at St. Barnabas Hospital in the Bronx for over 20 years before she retired. Lottie was a member of the Eastern Star.

She leaves to cherish her memory two sons, Wayne (Margaret) Clark of Bronx, N.Y. Dion (Donna) Clark of Greensboro, N.C.; two grandsons, Dion Jr., and Elliott Sharpe; one great granddaughter Honesty Sharpe of Greensboro, N.C.; five sisters, Ida Henry of Richmond, Va., Carrie Taylor of Columbia, S.C., Ellen Smith of Brooklyn, N.Y., Thelma Watson of Columbia, S.C., Rev. Maggie Daughtry of Brooklyn, N.Y., a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and a special friend, Mr. John Simms.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
