Obituary

Annie V. was born on March 28th 1930 to the late Estelle Pittman-Williams and the late Chrisele Thompson in Oak City, N.C.. She was the oldest of six children, she was educated in the Oak City N.C. School system. Later after staying in Oak City her mother moved her family to Williamston, N.C.

At a young age, Annie worked very hard on the farm in North Carolina for many years to help support her family. She loved and cherished her family very much. Annie was the pillar and back bone for her family, just like a mother to the whole family.

March 1st, 1953, she migrated to Newark, NJ where she worked as a domestic worker. As time went on she met Charles Campbell and they were united in marriage for Forty-eight years, before God called Charles home. He was a good family man, helping her to raise and support her family.

Annie was also employed at D.J. Product Company located in Newark, NJ until the Company went out of business. Annie was a very humble and proud woman who always walked by faith and not by sight. She loved the Lord, if you ever met her you would see the light shining through her.

Annie united with First Timothy Missionary Baptist Church in the year of 1955 under the leadership of Reverend Malachi Wilson. She served diligently until God called him home. Down through her journey at First Timothy Missionary Baptist Church, there were many changes of Pastor's and locations. She served on the Young Adult Choir, Senior Choir, Missionary Ministry, Pastor's Aide and Willing Workers Ministry.

Mother Campbell as she was affectionately known as, had a heart of gold and didn't mind helping where she was needed and when needed. She enjoyed visiting the sick in the hospital or at home. As a Missionary she always went above and beyond the call. A faithful and dedicated member she was.

She was preceded in death by her Mother and Father Estelle and Chrisele, her husband Charles, three brothers, Jesse Williams, Frank Williams and James Earl Williams, sister in law Joyce Williams, Godsisters, Betty White and Julia Cotton and many more family members.

God needed someone to ring those bells, on August 18th 2021 at 3:34 a.m. he called Annie, Servant your work here is done. She leaves to cherish her loving memories, her beloved children Pearl and Fred Karriem Pittman Newark NJ, two sisters Doretha Williams Williamston NC, and Judy Williams Newark NJ, three grandchildren, Gregory Pittman (Brenda) Newark NJ, Tahira Ali Herring McFadden (Kevin) Gable SC, and Ibn Karriem Herring, New Zion SC, six great-grandchildren Daeja Natia Pittman and Gerren Pittman, Newark NJ, Breyona Williams Raliegh NC, Bryce Williams, Gable SC, Kayleigh McFadden Gable SC, Serene Brown New Zion SC, two Goddaughters, Judith Batts and Eleanor Miley-Kitchen (John Edward) Chicago, ILL, two great-great grandchildren Ayana Brown of New Zion, S.C. and Jeremiah Pittman of Newark, NJ, two Godsons James (Star) Miley (Vicki) Newark, NJ and Ted Potts (Starla) Nile Mich. and a host of relatives and friends.

I heard a voice from Heaven say,
Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord
They will rest from their Labor
Their good deeds will follow them.
Revelations 14:13

Mom, you are a woman like no other. You gave us Life, you Nurtured us, you Taught us, you Dressed us you Fought for us, you Held us, you Shouted at us, you Kissed us but most Importantly, you taught us the LOVE of GOD. And you Loved us Unconditionally. We couldn't ask for a better Mother. We Love you so much Mom, things are not the same without you. We are truly, truly going to missed you, but we are going to keep you in our Hearts forever.

We will see you again, Mom

Love your Children
