

George Jones was born December 2, 1937 to the late Henry Lee Jones and Mary Williams in Dawson, Georgia. He was the fourth of seven children. Five of whom preceded him in death: Ella Mae Williams, Freddie Lee Jones, Clarence Jones, Billie Willie Jones, and Robert Lee Jones. Also preceded in death were two sons George Jr. and Kelly Rogers. God called him home on Monday, August 16, 2021 at his home in Newark, New Jersey. George attended Dawson School System in Georgia. On March 4, 1961 he was united in holy matrimony with the late Annie Mae Hilliard. This union was blessed with two sons, George Jr. and Morris, three daughters Theresa, Patricia, and Vivian.

George became a long time resident of Newark, New Jersey. He was the owner of the George's Playpen Bar located in Newark. George was the backbone of the family who kept everyone connected from New Jersey to Georgia. He was a very wise and strong willed individual with a heart of gold. George loved his family. He enjoyed spending time and partying with family and friends. George was a sharp dresser who stood out in crowds. He was known for his "Big Barbecue Cookouts", that brought family and friends together. He was one of the best cooks and barbecuers around town. George was a lovable father, grandfather, great grandfather, brother, godfather, companion, and friend to many. He lived life to the fullest, and will be missed by many.

George leaves to cherish his memory his five children Morris Jones, Theresa Jones, Patricia Jones-Johnson, Vivian Jones and Corey Rogers, one sister Shirley Jones-Pratt, two daughters-in-law Rachelle Jones and Crystal Rogers, his friend and companion Gladys Rogers, eighteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives along with many friends.
