Obituary

Harriet Shuler was born on September 27, 1944 in Far Rockaway, NY. She departed this life on August 10, 2021. Harriet was preceded in death by her mother, Martha Shuler Cox, her father, David Lee Shuler and her brothers, David Lee Shuler and Lucius Shuler.

Harriet attended the New York City public school system in Harlem, New York for her grade school education. She graduated from Washington Irving High School in 1962. Harriet furthered her education by attending Bronx Community College and Berkeley College where she received an Associate's Degree in Paralegal Studies.

Harriet was baptized at an early age. She served God at the Second Providence Baptist Church of Harlem for most of her life. She served in the Music Ministry on the Inspirational Choir (formerly the Young Adult Choir) and the Mass Choir. She was sought out to perform at many venues to share the love of God with her beautiful voice.

For 32 years, Harriet worked for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, holding the positions of Telecommunications Clerk, Senior Internal Operations Clerk and Lead Payments Control Analyst. Harriet ended her professional career working for Neighbors, Inc. as a Home Health Aide. During her professional career, she made lifelong friends who in turn have become extensions of her family.

Harriet was a lover of life and was dubbed "The Queen of Sheba" for her keen fashion sense and style that was always impeccable! At any venue you could expect to see her dressed in her African garb which she loved dearly. She loved to travel to her beloved South Carolina to visit with family and partake in her love of Gospel music, attending several shows per year up and down the east coast. Harriet was always one to laugh, dance and enjoy life.

Harriet leaves behind to celebrate her life: her only child—her daughter, Zephyrine Shuler (John Jones); two grandsons--Seavy Alexander, Jr. and Ethan Shuler; her sisters, Earline Turner and Victoria Shuler-Cox; her brother, Nayquan Shuler-Cox; her nieces, nephews and dear friends by whom she will be dearly missed and eternally celebrated.

The Is Gone

*You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what Mom would have wanted:
Smile, open your eyes, love and be kind.*

Until We Meet Again!

Acknowledgements
