Obituary

Daisy Ellis-McLeod's sunrise was November 22, 1935 to Obadiah and Mary Jane Ellis in Frankfield, the Carty Hill District of Clarendon, Jamaica. Affectionally know as "Ms D", she was the Seventh Child of Eight blessed siblings, leaving two siblings alive, her sister Ula Stoner and brother Oswald Ellis. 'Miss D' went to James Hill Primary, then to Frankfield High School and moved to Kingston where she pursued her studies in Business Administration.

As the years went by she met the love of her life, Solomon McLeod at a church event.

Together they married and had 5 children Evadne, Kenneth, Christine Joy, Norris, and Winston. In her young life she was full of courage and faith enough so that she migrated to the United States alone to prepare the way for the arrival of her husband and her five children in December 1969 Eight months after her departure from Jamaica, W.I.

The 'Church' was a very important aspect of her life and being in a new country was not going to stop that. She attended the then store front church in the neighborhood called Olivet Gospel Church. As the Lord gave her grace she served faithfully as the church continue to grow for many years. Her kindness to many, her love for the church and her love for people was evident in her long life. She will be greatly missed and always at the forefront of our thoughts.

Psalm 23 was one of her favorite scripture, "The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want" He is her Shepherd and He took care of her even when she could not see the road ahead. He provided for her in ways she could not have done for herself. Now that her journey has ended, we celebrate her life as a 'True Servant of God'. She leaves behind to cherish and remember her memories 4 adult children, 8 grandchildren, and 10 great grandchildren. Not to mention a host of family, friends, coworkers, and all the people that her life has impacted.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His faithful servants" Psalm 116:15 We love you 'Ms. D', Sister Mac, Mom'...until we see you again rest from your labor. Sunset August 15, 2021

Precious Memories

How Great Thou Art

O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the works thy hands hath made;
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed;

Refrain:

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art, how great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art, how great thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
I hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze; [Refrain]

But when I think that God, his Son not sparing,
Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin; [Refrain]

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim, "My God, how great thou art!" [Refrain]

Great is Thy Faithfulness

“Great is Thy faithfulness,” O God my Father,
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not, Thy compassions, they fail not
As Thou hast been Thou forever wilt be.

Refrain

“Great is Thy faithfulness!” “Great is Thy faithfulness!”
Morning by morning new mercies I see;
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided—
“Great is Thy faithfulness,” Lord, unto me!

Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love. [Refrain]

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside! [Refrain]
