Obituary

Jesse Jackson, known to some as “Boyie” or “Manhead”. Born on October 18, 1985, to mother Patricia Muschette and father Ronald Jackson. Jesse was the only son for Patricia.

Jesse grew up and spent most of his life at Grass Quit Glade Kingston, Jamaica. He later immigrated to the United States of America and resided of New York, where he ventured into a new journey, made new friends, and most importantly started his own little family. He then became a father of 2 very adorable daughters (Jessika and Jadaline Jackson) who he treasured and loved dearly.

Jesse was a very hard working and stunning young man who would work very hard to provide for his children. He also worked hard to keep up with his flamboyant lifestyle, as most of knew, Jesse loved looking outstanding. Apart from his love for his children and fancy wear, Jesse was a very clean person, meaning environment must be always kept clean. He could wash, cook, clean, you name it, anything having to do with cleanliness. When he washes his white clothes it white like, as Jamaicans would say, “pelican shit!!”.

Jesse was a very fun-loving person one that will do anything for his friends even if it means costing his own life.

Jesse Jackson was brutally taken from us on July 30, 2021. We are now left with all the great memories shared. He is greatly missed by all.
