Obituary

Thilita M. Brown-Adamson was born January 1, 1971, in Newark, NJ to Henry Mitchell and the Late Shirley Brown.

Thilita was called to her Heavenly home to be with the Lord on August 21, 2021 at the Morristown Memorial Medical Center after an extended period of illness in peace.

Her life was surrounded by her two sons, Da Shon and Justin, family, friends and co workers.

In her earlier years, she accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her Savior and was baptized at the Metropolitan Baptist Church, Newark, NJ. During her earlier childhood years, she was educated in the Newark School systems. She studied Business Administration at the University of Phoenix, Class of 2008. Also, Business Administration at Centenary University 2004-2006 and Attended Essex County College.

Thilita was employed by The City of Newark Municipal Court as an Assignment Clerk where she worked 33 years.

One of Thilita's favorite sayings was: "Never let anyone take your happiness."

Thilita leaves to cherish her memory, her sons, Da Shon and Justin, former husband of 18 years, Wendell Marvin Adamson, and father, Henry Mitchell. Also, sisters and brothers, Al-traiq, Deitra, Monique, Cassandra and Saladin, extended family members, nephews, nieces, a host of other cousins, co-workers and friends.

As I sit in heaven
 And watch you everyday
 I try to let you know with signs
 I never went away
 I hear you when you're laughing
 I watch you as you sleep
 I even place my arms around you
 To calm you as you weep
 I see you wish the days away
 Begging to have me home
 So I try to send you signs
 So you know you are not alone
 Don't feel guilt that you have
 Life that was denied to me
 Heaven is truly beautiful
 Just you wait and see
 So live your life, laugh again
 Enjoy yourself be free
 Then I know with every breath you take
 You'll be taking one for me...
