Obituary

Edward Jerome Williams was born in Macon, Georgia, the eldest son of the late Henry (Lee) Williams and Essie (Walker) Williams. Edward departed this life on August 25, 202, at the age of sixty-two at St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, New Jersey.

Edward was a meat packer many years ago at the Green Tree Packing Company of Passaic, New Jersey. He loved to fish, venture outdoors and play video games. Edward enjoyed watching football like his late brother Robert (Dewayne) Williams. He even loves to party with family and friends. He also wasn't afraid to introduce himself to others. He is a very easy-going person to get along with. The niece's of Edward Williams said they loved to play games with him, hangout for cookouts and meet at weddings.

Edward leaves to cherish his memory; his daughter, Tatyana Williams of Passaic, New Jersey; two sisters, Vanessa Williams and Gwendolyn (Williams) Nicholson, both of Passaic, New Jersey, and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

A man with a beard, wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt and a blue baseball cap, is holding a large bow and arrow. He is standing outdoors in a grassy area with trees in the background. The image is partially obscured by a white semi-transparent box on the right side, which contains the text for the service order.

His Journey Just Begun

*Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.*

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

*Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.*

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

Acknowledgement

The family of Edward J. Williams acknowledges with great appreciation all acts of kindness, sympathy and love extended to us during this time of bereavement.
