Obituary

Martha Ann (Miller) Hooper was born the second child of Virginia and Floyd Miller on September 7, 1940 in Barnwell, SC. The family relocated to New York City in 1942.

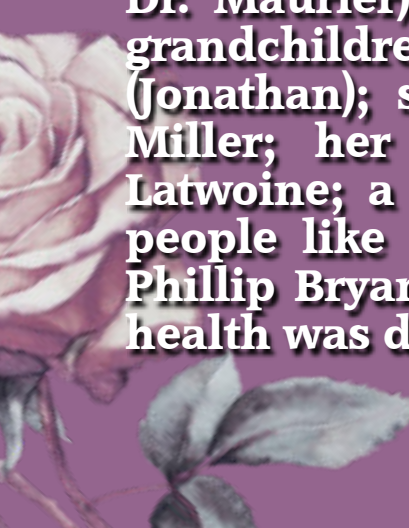

Martha graduated from Jane Adams High School in 1958. She then met and married Alexander N. Hooper Sr.

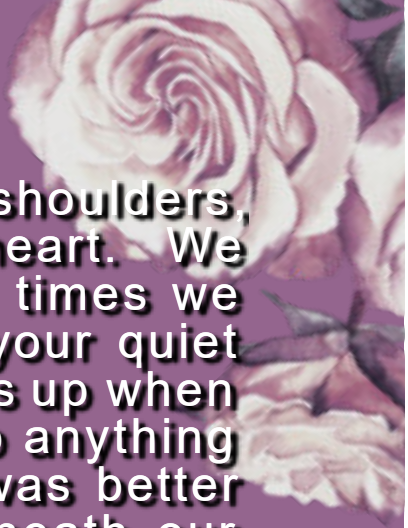

Martha loved her family and had no problem exchanging her happiness for theirs. She gave up her own dreams of becoming a professional beautician to raise and nurture her children and her younger siblings. When they were all out of the nest she started a career as a dietary aide at Harlem Hospital Center. Yet, when the call came again to support her family she, once again and without hesitation, gave up her dreams to adopt and raise her grandchildren.

Martha was tough, stubborn as a mule and humble. You could not tempt her with what someone else had. She truly believed that what God had for her was for her. She instilled those same values into her children. Be tough, hold your ground, and be humble.

She was preceded in death by her Mother, Virginia (Harden) Miller; her step-father Frederick Hamilton, her sister Blanche (Miller) Jones, her brother Marshall Miller, her great grandson A.B. Herder, her nephews Sharbar and Barrington Perry.

She leaves to mourn her children Darlene Winston (Minister Dr. Maurier); Alexander N. Hooper Jr.; Denise Hooper; her grandchildren Desiree; Dexter; Daniel; Joi; Alex; and Brandi (Jonathan); seven great grandchildren; her sister Charlotte Miller; her niece Sharmaca; and nephews Merritt and Latwoine; a host of other relatives and friends; and many people like her cousin Beverly Jones; LaNae Trotman; and Phillip Bryan who were all extremely kind to her when her health was declining.

Mommy thank you for letting us step on your shoulders, your neck, your back and many times your heart. We weren't always kind and truth be told often times we were mean and selfish. Yet, through it all, in your quiet and gentle way you were always there to lift us up when we were down, to remind us that we could do anything that we put our minds to, and that no one was better than we were. You are truly the wind beneath our wings. Ma, because of you we can go on with our heads held high, just as you taught us, strong and proud to call you our mother.

GONE FROM OUR SIGHT BUT NEVER FROM OUR HEARTS

REST IN PEACE, YOU HAVE TRULY EARNED YOUR CROWN

The Family of Martha Ann (Miller) Hooper wishes to express their sincere appreciation and gratitude for the many calls, cards, and condolences expressed during this time of bereavement. Your prayers, love, and presence has all helped to sustain us. May God continue to bless and keep all of you in His loving care.
