Obituary

Jamal Quinn Davis, age 51 passed away on Friday, August 20th, 2021 at Tanner Medical Center in Villa Rica, Georgia.

Jamal was born in New York City on January 26th, 1970 to Horace Davis and Ethel Cooper. He attended the New York Public School System where he graduated from DeWitt Clinton High School in the Bronx.

Jamal worked as a Customer Service Representative for years within the Healthcare, Finance and Mortgage Industry. He was always held in high regard by his Supervisors and co-workers because of the impeccable service he offered to his clients.

As a young boy, Jamal played football only for a brief moment before finding his love for basketball. He was a gifted player, he played for several teams and in different tournaments which allowed him to play all throughout New York City. Jamal often stated that his love for basketball kept him out of trouble. He introduced the game to his sons and daughters and was always quick to go toe to toe and defend his favorite teams, Chicago Bulls and Los Angeles Lakers with the kids or anyone that challenged their skills.

Jamal loved basketball, but his biggest love of all was his family. He lived his life to the fullest through the simple pleasures of spending time at home, family gatherings and traveling from state to state and different countries with his family.

At the time of his passing, Jamal was married to the Love of his life, Pearl. They were married for over 25 years. Jamal is survived by: his mother, Ethel Cooper; wife, Pearl; children, Daniell, Jada, Jamila, Nichole, Tracy, Travis and Quintin; grandchildren, Taylor, Jesuan, Solomon, Levi, La'Mora, Greyson and Legend; his brothers, Donald and Horace; sister, Donna; nephew, Charles; nieces, Deja and Candice; father-in-law, Frederick Muldrow; aunts by marriage, Phyllis Adams and Alice Ryer; a host of cousins and extended family; and friends that are family. He is predeceased by his father, Horace Davis and brother-in-law, Douglas.

Romans 14:8: For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
