Life Reflections

Harry Jahlil Naquan Williamson was born on November 4, 1996 in Hempstead, New York, son of Judith Elizabeth Williamson.

As a young boy, Harry played the position of Defensive Tackle with the Westfield PAL Football League. It was then that his coach gave him the nickname “Big Cat”. He later became Co-Captain of the Westfield High School Football team.

Harry graduated from Westfield High School in 2015. He continued his education at Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Connecticut where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology.

Upon graduation from college, Harry returned to Westfield, New Jersey. He was employed at Home Depot in Garwood, New Jersey, where he held various positions. His most recent employment was with the Westfield Board of Education where he was a Paraprofessional and Substitute Teacher.

Harry was a faithful lifelong member of First Baptist Church in Cranford, New Jersey. From a young age, he attended Sunday School and Church services and served as Usher throughout his membership at the church.

Harry Jahlil Naquan Williamson departed this life on Wednesday, September 1, 2021 at his Westfield home at the age of 24. He was predeceased by his grandparents, Harry and Julia Williamson and an uncle, Harry “Buzzy” Williamson.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, his devoted mother, Judith Williamson of Westfield, NJ; his “second mother” and godmother, Aunt Nancy, of Virginia Beach, VA; his loving girlfriend, Jacqueline Ellerbee, his godmothers, Amber Pierce and Vicki Cowan; godfather, Alfred Wyche, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and numerous school friends.

Lovingly and Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
