Obituary

Tuana Q. Marable Brown “Woody” was born to the late Mary Marable and James McKinney on September 6, 1964 in Newark, NJ. She attended the Newark School system until high school. She attended Art’s High School and Irvington High School where she graduated and went on to Robert Welch Business School. She worked many jobs including Bamburgers/Macy’s in Newark where she found love and became the proud mother of her 1st born Tameca T. Marable. She later on met and married Norman Brown and from that union she had two boys Emenike and Tameel Brown. Tuana suffered with arthritis from age 11 however, always managed to keep a smile on her face. She loved helping other and cooking. Tuana was an amazing wife, mother, sister, aunt, grandmother and friend. Always there if you needed someone to talk to, and tell you just what you needed and how she really felt without hesitation and without biting her tongue. To know Tuana was truly to love her.

She leaves to mourn her 3 children Tameca Marable, Emenike Brown and Tameel Brown of Newark, 1 daughter in law Tiffany Graham of Newark, 1 daughter/niece Zieha Donaldson, 1 son/nephew Ibin Donaldson and 1 grandson Rahmir Talbout all from Newark, NJ, 1 sister Jameela Marable of East Orange, 4 brothers Conele Marable Jr. of Irvington, Jermaine Marable of East Orange Jameel Marable of Pennsylvania and Renard Petterman. 2 step sisters Dawn Carroll of Newark and Keeba Jones of Pennsylvania. Tuana also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends. She precedes in death her parents Mary Marable and James McKinney step father Conele Marable Sr. brother Jonathan Marable, her grandparents 1 aunt and 5 uncles.

"My Sister"

She knows just where
I dream to go,
Remembers where I've been.
Accepts me just the way I am.
And treats me like a friend.
She's someone who is there for me,
No matter what or when,
And everytime I'm with her,
It's like I'm coming home again.
