Obituary

"He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my god in whom I trust"

Psalm 91: 1-2

Albert Yancey McIntosh Jr. was born on March 31, 1966 at Harlem Hospital in New York, NY to the late Aloma and Albert Sr. McIntosh.

Albert Jr. grew up in the boroughs of NY. He spent part of his youth in Harlem, NY and the remaining years of his life in the Bronx; Edenwald projects to be exact. He attended elementary and junior high throughout the public school district. He graduated high school from Dewitt Clinton and later continued his education at Monroe College where he obtained his Associate degree.

Albert Jr. also known as "POP" was a vibrant, stand up man. He was a jack of all trades. He spent most of his career working as a transit bus operator. He had a passion of collecting finer things. He took pride in collecting old coins, watches, art, and antiques. Pop loved playing spades, poker, and blackjack. To know him is to love him. He was the king of jokes. He loved to listen to R&B music. Some of his favorite artist was R. Kelly, Janet Jackson, Brian McKnight, Jesse Powell, and Jagged Edge. If you knew POP , you knew his favorite dish was "Pork Chops". He was never one to bite his tongue. Pop was a realist. Although he was a very private person, his warmth and inner-strength was felt by ALL. He will truly be missed.

Daddy leaves to cherish his memory: His three children Shatyse, Michael, & Cherice. His eight grandchildren. His siblings: Melody, Lamont, Robyn, Seanna, & Carl. His life long partner Pat. His aunt Gloria. Along with a host of nieces, nephews, grand nieces, grand nephews, cousins, other relatives, and close friends.

Life Without End - At Last ! (John 3:16)

*Can you see, with your minds eye, peoples dwelling together?
Sorrow has passed. Peace at last ! Life without tears and pain.*
