Obituary

Kaye Sherry-Anne Springer-Gogoh was born the 2nd April, 1974 on the island on Barbados to mother Sheila Springer and father Edward Dacosta Francis

She received her early education at the All Saint Girls School, the Leacock's Private School before moving on the Alexandra Secondary where she completed her secondary education. After completing her high School Education

Kaye moved on to the Barbados Community College where she majored in Accounts and Economics.

At the age of age of twenty (20) Kaye migrated to the United States and resided with her aunt Maxean Bowen where she attended Bronx Community College and Baruch College.

Kaye married the love of her life Nnabu Gogoh July 19, 2009, and the union produced two children Arianna and Jeremiah.

Let us be comforted in knowing that Kaye never lost her faith or her praise. Kaye was the embodiment of the Proverbs 31 woman.

- She was a woman of virtue (Proverbs 31: 10)
- She was a woman who blessed her husband and children (Proverbs 31:11-12, Proverbs 31:28)
- She was a diligent worker (Proverbs 31:17)
- A woman of compassion (Proverbs 31:20)
- A woman of wisdom (Proverbs 31:26)
- And most important, she was a woman who honored and feared the Lord (Proverbs 31:30)

An appreciation from her aunt Maxean Bowen called "Letter from heaven" by Alena Meadows

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you will miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*

An appreciation for her cousin, Dr. Stacea Bowen she said Kaye liked it a lot. The reading is called “I have Only Just a minute by Dr. Benjamin E. Mays”

*I have only just a minute,
Only sixty seconds in it.
Forced upon me, can't refuse it.
Didn't seek it, didn't choose it.
But it's up to me
To use it
I must suffer, if I lose it.
Give account, if I abuse it.
Just a tiny little minute,
But eternity is in it.*

Tribute for her sister Janice Springer who often referred to her the “Modern Day Mother Theresa”

*Kaye, Like A Comet, You blazed across the Evening Sky
Like A Rainbow, Fading In The Twinkling Of An Eye
You were Shiny And Sparkly And Splendidly Bright
You were here, One Day, and Gone One Night
Like The Loss Of Sunlight, on A Cloudy Afternoon
Like A Castle, built Upon A Sandy Beach
Like A Perfect Flower that Is Just Beyond our Reach
You were born To Amuse, To Inspire, To Delight
Like A Sunset, dying With The Rising Of The Moon
Sis, you have Gone to be with your Lord and Master*

An appreciation from her mother who could not travel to be here today:

My beautiful rainbow in the sky has gone to be with her Master. She walked into death with a silent resolve and deep abiding faith to be with her Lord and Master. Lord, you gave her to me forty-seven years ago and you required her. I lovingly give her back to you. Wrap her in your everlasting arms.

Kaye, is survived by her loving devoted husband Nnabu, children Arianna and Jeremiah, her mother Sheila Springer and her aunt and adopted mother Maxean, her mother-in-law, her stepchildren Nnamdi and Alozie, several sisters and brothers, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends, too many to name, both in the USA and in Barbados

Rest in Peace Kaye and Rise in Glory.
