Obituary

*What a Great Mother and Friend. There will be no other like you.
But we understand that*

There is a Time for Everything.

A Time To Be Born: Richardine “Bunny” Sullivan was born on July 28, 1951. She was born in Columbus G.A. to the late Henry and Bertha Mae Stephens. She was the youngest daughter out of her five siblings.

A Time To Plan: Richardine was raised and educated in the Bronx, N.Y. She went on to higher education at LaGuardia College. She worked at the New York City Department of Social Services for 25 years until she retired. After retirement, Richardine enjoyed life being with family, friends, relaxing, and hanging at the Goose Island Senior Citizen club.

A Time To Be Happy: In 1971, Richardine welcomed her son, Jemal and following in 1974, her daughter, LaShawn Richardine’s children were the love of her life. As a mother, she took pride in raising her children. She was stern and tough but yet caring. Richardine accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior and would say, “Live and let Live.”

A Time To Rest: Richardine departed this life on 9/7/2021 at Calvary Hospital Bronx, N.Y. after a long battle of illness. She fought long and hard until God gave her wings to fly home. She is preceded by her Mother, Father and Sister Susie Mae Gant.

A Time To Be Sad: Richardine leaves to cherish her memories, her son Jemal Hyman, daughter LaShawn Sullivan, 7 grandchildren, Jemal Hyman Jr, ReShay Glynn, Jania Hyman, Chanell Daniels, Jordan Hyman, Julian Hyman, Jayden Hyman and her great granddaughter Nova Hyman. Her siblings, Henrietta Mazyck, Ruthann Mayo, James Stephens and a host of nieces’, nephew and grand nephews and nieces.

In the words of Bunny “Don’t cry, I had fun. I had a good life and a good time.”

“I’M FREE”

Author unknown

Don’t grieve for me, now I’m free. I’m following the path God laid for me; I took his hand when I heard him call; I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play. Task left undone must stay that way, I found peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow; I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life has been full; I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved one’s touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don’t lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me. God wanted me now; He set me free!

The Family
