Obituary

Robert West Eaddy known to family as “Pooh” and known to others as “Jahar”, arrived on this earth on June 22, 1961. He was born to the union of his parents, Emma Lee Eaddy (deceased mother) and Richard Dicks (deceased father). He was born in Lake City, South Carolina and migrated with his family at the age of three to Brooklyn, New York. Pooh was the oldest of five siblings, Toni Eaddy, Darren Eaddy, Sharon Eaddy and Mekeba Eaddy.

In Brooklyn, Pooh was at home and loved everything the city had to offer. He attended PS 158, Junior High 55 and Jefferson High School. Over the years he was a ‘Jack of All Trades’. He would DJ at parties, parks and clubs. He boxed at the Starrett City, he worked construction, and over the past several years he worked his love and passion cutting hair as a barber.

In 1975, he met and became involved with the love of his life, Delores Myers. Although, they were not legally married, he identified her as his wife. Together they gave birth to and raised five children, Zamel Myers, Nicole Myers, Robert Myers (deceased), Christopher Myers, and Zimone Myers. His children were the light of his life and he would do anything for them.

Pooh was the light of the party and liked to dress fly and would always be seen with a smile. He had a sense of humor that kept all who knew him laughing. If you did something in his presence you could expect him to be the first person to make a joke, but he was also able to laugh at himself. If you crossed him you could also expect to feel his wrath. He didn’t always make the right decisions, but he did the best he could in difficult situations.

He leaves to mourn his memory: his wife, Delores Myers; his four children, Nicole, Zamel, Christopher and Zimone; his three granddaughters, Zaniya, Cherish and Zafire; his seven grandsons, Zamir, Zamel, Shane, Jaden, Christopher Robert, Nashawn and King; his four siblings, Toni, Darren, Sharon and Mekeba; six aunts; three uncles; and a whole host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends that were like family.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.
