Obituary

Darry Derell Frazier better known as “Trigger” was born on January 19, 1980 to mother, Juanita and father, Darry, Sr. Darry was born in the Bronx, New York and was later raised in Brooklyn with his little sister, Deanita.

Darry lived in Kingsborough, where he met a lot of his lifelong friends and some relatives. As a child, he was very determined to do things on his own. Darry started to walk at six months old. At the age of three, he taught himself how to ride his bike with no training wheels, barefooted in the house.

Our brother Darry was called home to the Lord on September 5, 2021. He was loved by so many people. At this very moment, Trigger would tell us, “God got me. I’m good. Tighten up. My body is just a vessel and my spirit will live on through you all. Y’all straight, I’m good. We’re going to be alright. Man... stop crying like little punks. Acting like little punky punks. (Funny because he is the biggest cry baby of them all). Everyone was his people. You ask him, well, Trigger who’s that? “Oh, that’s my mans, he mad cool or that’s shawty from over there, she’s cool as a fan.” He always knew somebody everywhere he went.

Darry was always ready to crack a joke. He had a lot of love for people no matter who you were or what you had. He was a ball of fun and he was always doing something and going places. He enjoyed a few hobbies like cooking, crabbing, drawing, making beats and reading up on current events around the world. He was so curious that he even learned a couple of different languages: Arabic, Spanish, and Russian. Darry had many jobs of different trades. It only took you one time to show him something and he got it. He was always trying something new and sharpening his tools. He worked from retail, food chains, construction, auto mechanic, and carpentry.

Darry was called up sooner than expected to help serve our Almighty Lord for a greater purpose. Darry leaves to cherish his memories: three beautiful queens, wife, Rose, Daneisha and Nicole and their children, Dayshawn, Layshawn, Jahshawn, Alijah, Emmanuel and Kylie; his loving mother, Juanita Frazier; his step-pop, Darryl; his sister, Deanita; brother-in-law, Avery, Sr.; his nephew, Avery; his nieces, Alayah and Armani; his aunts, Terry and Lavern; his uncle, Travis; and a host of cousins whom were more like siblings, lifelong friends and loved ones.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
