Obituary

Elizabeth B Patrick was born to the late Theodore Jones and Semmi Eda House - Williams on June 4th 1947 at 8:15 p.m. in Eastville Virginia. She departed this Earthly Life on Sunday September 5th 2021.

When you think of someone with a high standard of life, who has compassion for self and others, you think of a nurturing woman named Elizabeth Patrick. You think of her hard work ethic and dedication to be a caregiver as she had a huge heart full of love. She was a social butterfly and was meticulous in her home and priorities within her family.

Elizabeth was the oldest of her siblings and had many responsibilities at a young age. During her younger years, she moved to East Elmhurst Queens New York where she attended elementary and junior high. There she received a Citizenship Award for Excellence in monitorial service in the month of June 1962. Elizabeth then graduated from Forest Hills High School in June of 1966 and began studies at Nassau Community College to further her education.

After college Elizabeth worked in the Nassau County court system and later married the love of her life Wayne Anderson Patrick Sr on June 28th 1986. Along with her husband she found her purpose to be a caregiver and passionately worked as a licensed daycare provider while raising her own family. Upon her late husband Wayne's passing on March 25th 1995, Elizabeth continued to raise her family and never stopped her mission of being a caregiver as she then became an elementary student lunch aid in which she found much joy.

Even though she has succumbed to lengthy health issues Elizabeth lived a very fulfilled and joyful life. Elizabeth is survived by her four children Wayne Anderson Patrick Jr, Tiffany Danielle Patrick, Ronald L Scott Jr, and Jane'e Simone Scott, her sisters and brothers, four grandsons, three granddaughters, and numerous nephews, nieces, and lifelong friends.

Elizabeth was very much loved and will be dearly missed.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
