

To those I love and those that love me.
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
Thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home"

Elon Alexis Harris was born on June 8th 1970 to the proud parents of Egbert Patrick Harris and Yearn Edna Harris. Elon was their third child. She attended Wales Government School as a young child in Guyana, before migrating to America in 1978 to join her father along with her mother and four siblings. Upon coming to America Elon attended Lincoln Elementary School. Once graduated, she then completed four years of high school at Vailsburg High School. Elon then pursued a career in the Business field and Graduated.

She met and married Darryl Deloach in 1991. During that Union came her beautiful daughter Jasmine Larema Deloach. Upon separation of that short union Elon worked at Bloomingdales for several years as a sales associate. Elon then met the late Mr. Graham Grosvenor and they got married in Nassau Bahamas in 2001. Out of that Union came her two handsome sons Shaquille and Shane Grosvenor.

Throughout her growth in life Elon always remained a mild mannered humble individual with a Beautiful Radiant Smile that would make anyone feel welcomed. As a young child Elon Always had a passion for cooking she was a great help to her mother in the kitchen in her teen years.

With her love for cooking, She then pursued a course in Culinary Art, which led to her entrepreneurship to opening up Elons Caribbean Soul, her first restaurant in Montclair Nj as a Certified Chef. It opened doors for her to part-take in the Caribbean festivities throughout New Jersey and New York. This allowed Elon to broadcast her talent in exquisite cuisines. Her cultured cooking along with her professionalism led her to touch the lives of many by bringing their dreams to reality for all events Catering for - sweet16, weddings, birthdays, and endless private occasions.

We're Not Talking about the kernel here! We're talking about Elons secret Ingredients for her sweet chilli wings, calypso shrimp and that special chowmein was an original. Elon always said " MY SAUCE IS THE BOSS"

Elon wore many hats. She was able to balance her career and still give her children the time and attention they needed at home. Her lovely home in West Orange was also used as an extension for her to present her Sip & taste parties. Her willingness to help out and deliver even in an last minute emergency will be greatly missed.

Today! Elon leaves to mourn her loving children, Jasmine Larema Deloach, Shaquille Grosvenor, & Shane Grosvenor, grandson King Adams, parents Egbert Harris & Edna Harris, Sisters Roxanne, Shondell, Deshanna & Dedra, brothers Clay and Shon, nine nieces, nine nephews, one great niece, five uncles, nine aunts, two godmothers, many many cousins, countless numbers of colleagues and friends.
