Obituary

Reginald Knight was born in Brooklyn, New York on September 19, 1964 to Mattie Ruth Gorden and Charles Knight. As many knew of him, he was affectionately called Reggie. Reggie was raised by his mother and grandmother, Doretha Gorden. He attended P.S. 197, Andries Hudde JHS and Edward R. Murrow High School. Reggie had a big personality, a wild imagination, and a kind heart.

The simplest pleasures in life brought great joy to Reggie, like faithfully feeding the neighborhood cats every single morning and spending time with his family and close friends. September 19, 2008, Reggie married his soul mate, Terez Legree Knight. They had a bond that was unbreakable and worthy of envy. His daughters were the light of his life. As a proud Girl Dad, he bragged about his daughters every chance he had. His comedic personality was contagious to everyone he met. At holiday time he was the family's best sweet potato pie maker, but that could never hold a match to him, serenading anyone, anything, in any situation with his comedic songs. Reggie would literally make a song about anything.

Reginald leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Terez Legree Knight; mother, Mattie R. Gorden; his father, Charles Knight; his stepfather, David Edwards; four daughters, Tarina Knight, Anastasia Little, Taniah Little, and Monay Gorden; three sisters, Regina Knight, Desiree Gorden and Chastity Blake; first cousins, Tanya Gorden, Kenneth Knight, Alexis Knight, and Tanya Gorden; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends that will carry on his legacy forever.
