Asleep

I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be, I thank God because He came for me.
-Emily Dickinson

Obituary

Helen Faust known as “Ten Leg” in her youth, was born in Denmark, South Carolina, on September 13, 1933, an only child to Mattie Faust (deceased).

She attended school in South Carolina, and then moved to New York City in 1958, where she worked as a sleep-in, and later as a factory worker.

Helen raised five children as a single mother. Later in life, she worked at Mount Sinai Hospital as a laundry worker, for several years. Helen also worked for CRC as a housekeeper, cook and aide, where she retired at the age of 65 to enjoy her life with her family. She traveled and went on a cruise, which she truly enjoyed.

Helen attended Seven Light's Baptist Church, and later became a member of Faith Mission Baptist Church.

She loved to listen to “1010 Wins NY” and loved to dance and listen to the Blues and R&B music. Helen was always ready to help anyone, at anytime and anywhere. She loved to cook and made sure that no one went hungry. Everyone loved Helen’s homemade ice cream and her famous “Mac & Cheese”. “She will surely be missed.”

Helen is preceded in death by her eldest son, Robert (Rock); her youngest son, Andrea (Peewee); and three grandchildren, Randolph (Randy), Wale' and Giovanni (Gee).

Helen leaves behind to mourn: her daughters, Joyce Louise and Brenda (Jeannette); her son, Bobby (Kim); nine grandchildren, Tony, Laverne (Bernie), Tisje (Michael), Shamaine, Amari, Avante, Tori, Donna and Ricky; six great grands, Tony Jr. (TJ), Tiffany, Jamell, Alexis, Janelle and DeVoun; four great great grands, SaRayna, Jordan, Jayden and Makayla; her extended family of North Carolina, Robert Jr., Jackie, Wayne, Sarah and Queenie by Robert Young, the love of her life who affectionately called her "Pecan"; one brother, Faru (Jamilla); special cousins, Della, Rose, Hermina and Al Willie; best friends, Ms. Carol, Ms. Rebecca, Ms. Elaine, Ms. Ana and Mr. Roger; and a host of family and friends.
