Obituary

Royston Reece Sr. was born on March 7, 1946, in Kingston Jamaica to the late Jasper Reece and Maud Reece. Royston Reece Sr went home to glory on Tuesday September 7, 2021 at East Orange Hospital East Orange NJ.

Royston was educated at Red Hills All Age School in Saint Andrews Jamaica. He was employed with the National Water Commission and was a licensed plumber. Royston was a dedicated man who always looked ahead and was mission driven with goals to achieve.

Royston was blessed to meet the love of his life Delores Minott and they were married. They had three beautiful children Keisha Reece, Roxroy Reece and Royston Reece Jr. Although Royston and his wife Delores were completely opposites (as they say opposites do attract) they shared the same beliefs and passion for hard work. Royston's professional plumbing skills led him to build his first home in Jamaica for his family. His family was proud. Royston believed in teaching his two sons about responsibility at a young age. His sons were to wake each day and milk the cows, take goats to bush, feed the chickens and clean the pigs pens. Even though their responsibilities seemed vigorous, he taught them a valuable lesson on good work ethics, good character and what it meant to build a strong family bond.

Royston's passion for a better life of opportunities led him to move to America. With his steadfast passion to provide for his family he later moved his wife and children to America. Royston was employed with Mearsk and Verizon and later retired. Royston loved to travel to Jamaica, enjoyed soccer games and playing dominoes. Royston was more reserved when it came to communicating but his actions spoke louder than words. Royston was proud to see his kids grow up and followed in his footsteps putting family first doing what they must do to provide.

Royston leaves to cherish his wife Delores Reece, one daughter Keisha Reece, two sons Roxroy Reece and Royston Reece Jr.(Latasha),three grandchildren Jalen, Xavier and Laila. Brothers, Late Gervis, Lenny, Linford, Easton and Sisters, Patricia, Ina, Vernise, Marcia, and a host of Nieces, Nephews and friends.
