I'm Free by Shannon Lee Moseley

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

The Obituary James C. Mcgee

James C. Mcgee was born on October 3, 1954 in Brooklyn, NY to Rozena Mcgee. He passed away suddenly alongside his daughter on September 1, 2021, in Irvington, NJ. This loss was unexpected leaving the family and friends shocked and deeply saddened. He will be truly missed.

James affectionately known as “Jimmy” was the 3rd child of 6 children, all boys. He was educated in the Brooklyn School System, where he graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in 1972. Prior to graduation Jimmy began his career at New London Pharmacy in Manhattan, NY where remained a valuable employee for 50 years as a Pharmacy Technician.

Jimmy met the love of his life JoAnn as teenagers in 1968. In 1975 they became husband and wife, and to this union two beautiful daughters were born Shenique, and Patrice. Jimmy would spend the next 46 years of his life loving his girls, and enjoying his favorite pastimes of playing basketball, softball, drawing, making figurines, and he loved to make people laugh. The only thing he enjoyed more than these was music, Jimmy was known to make up songs, and freestyle. He was a loving husband, devoted father, caring brother, a great friend and an all-around wonderful man.

Jimmy leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife JoAnn Mcgee; daughter Patrice Mcgee; mother Rozena Mcgee; brothers Irvin (Katherine) Mcgee of Fl, Charles (Rose) Mcgee of MD, Darryl (Henna Lori) Mcgee of Fl, Robert (Valrie) Mcgee of NY, Calvin (Tami) Mcgee of CT; brother-in-law Robby Green of Germany; God children, Kaiisha of Fl and Tiana of CT; best friend Robert DeJesus of NJ; and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, great nephews and nieces, cousins and other relatives and friends.

The Obituary Shenique Tiana Mcgee

Shenique Tiana Mcgee was born on July 4, 1975, in Brooklyn, NY to JoAnn Mcgee and the late James C. Mcgee. She passed away suddenly alongside her father on September 1, 2021 in Irvington, NJ. This shocking loss was unexpected leaving the family and friends devastated and deeply saddened. She will be truly missed.

Shenique affectionately known as Sheat to her sister, and Nique to her mom was the first child of two children. She was educated in the Irvington Public School System where she graduated from Irvington High School in 1993. Shenique held positions at Newark Airport and FedEx prior to obtaining her Certification in Culinary Arts from Star Academy. She was later employed by Wonder as a chef.

Shenique's love of cooking came from her mom. She would cook various meals from seafood to vegan to soul food, you name it she could prepare it. When Shenique was not cooking, she loved to write, listen to music and shop, specifically for sneakers. She was known as a “Sneaker Head”. She also loved playing basketball with her dad. Shenique was a wonderful daughter, loving sister, a great friend and she had a special love for her pet cat Ziggy.

Shenique leaves to cherish her memory, her loving mother JoAnn Mcgee; sister Patrice Mcgee; grandmother Rozena Mcgee; God child Christopher “Biscuit” Green; Best friend Debbie Pugh; her beloved cat Ziggy; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and other relatives and friends.
