Obituary

Alzena R. Brown was born November 3, 1932 in Jersey City, NJ to the late Henry Sr. and Beatrice Jordan. After a full joyful life, on September 15, 2021 God sent his angels to come set her free.

Alzena R. Brown was educated by the Jersey City Public School system. She went on to work for the company known as Clorox where she retired from. She later decided to go back to work at a few daycare centers, just because she had a love for children.

Alzena also loved to shoot pool in her spare time, and was known all throughout the city for being one of the best. She was in tournaments and won trophies to show for the love of the sport. She was a faithful member of Mt. Pisgah A.M.E.Church for many years.

When you would come through the doors of the church, you would be greeted by her with a peppermint and a smile.

Today we are not here to mourn the loss of Alzena Brown but to celebrate the life of a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, and provider for all of her family.

Alzena R. Brown is preceded in death by her husband John Brown Sr. her parents Henry Sr and Beatrice Jordan, her brothers Sherman, Seafus, Joseph and Henry Jr., her two daughters Wanda and Karen Brown and one grand-daughter Tonya Ballon.

Alzena is survived by her children Saundra L. Ballon (Moses), John Brown Jr. and Darcel Bowens (Steven). She was also the custodial Mother/Grandmother to Farrah Hines, Tiwana and Tirhonna Brown, Kevin and Alfonza Brown whom she loved all dearly. She also left behind 8 other grandchildren, 29 great- grandchildren and 9 great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and other family members and friends.
