Obituary

Plummie was born September 23, 1940 to the late Frank and Plummie McCoy in Fort Valley, Georgia. She was the sixth of eleven children. Once Plummie graduated high school she immediately moved to New York, where she spent the rest of her life. She graduated from Queens Borough College, where she became a medical assistant. She worked as a medical assistant for over forty years, thirty of those years she spent working two jobs. Her primary job was at the HIP center where she became well known in the neighborhood.

Plummie met her husband James in 1970 and built a life in Queens Village. They became avid travelers, visiting over forty countries on six continents and over thirty states. She was also an active member of the Order of Eastern Stars for many years. Plummie loved to read, watching the news, drinking her coffee and spending time with her children and extended family.

Plummie will be remembered as a selfless, calm and giving mother and wife who always had a smile, even when times were tough. She never complained and always looked to a better future. She loved and lived every moment she was given, neither hard times nor illness would rob her of who she was. Always graceful, until God called her home.

Plummie leaves to cherish her memory, husband James, sons Phillip, Patrick, Allan, Alex and daughter Nikyah. Grandson, Christopher and a hosts of nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by brothers O.C., Calvin, Frank, Willie B, Nathaniel and Charles and sisters Ola, Doris, Clementine and Emma.

*Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow
But remember me in every tomorrow,
Remember the joy, and the smiles
I've only gone to rest a little while
Although my leaving causes pain and grief
My going has eased my hurt and given me relief.
So dry your eyes and remember me,
Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
Because I will remember you
all and look on with a smile.
Understand in your hearts,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
As long as I have the love of each of you
I can live my life in the hearts of all of you.*

Acknowledgements

The family would like to express its heartfelt gratitude to everyone for the kindness and encouragement that they have been shown during this difficult time. The passing of our loved one makes us realize what it is to have great friends and family. Every prayer, visit, flower, card, thought as well as the many other ways in which kindness was shown have been deeply appreciated. We shall never forget.
