

Dad

I sit back and look to as far as I can remember, the times we shared together and you were always there next to me, Each and everyday you were helping me grow up and making me the best I could be

Your love was forever strong, your cuddles and hugs forever tight,
Everyday since I was born, your love was always in sight

In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still, In my heart you hold a place that no one in the world could fill

It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of me went with you when God took you home

I love you dad until we meet again.

Tamar Shamar Kareem Harris aka Muchie was born February 24th 1985. Born to Robin Harris (Mother) and the late Roderick Wynn (Father). Tamar was born in Newark, N.J, Raised in Irvington, NJ. As a child Tamar was an honor student and hard worker with a working history dating back to age 11 as a camp counselor at the Second Reformed Church. He received his High school diploma from Alif Nia-Mohammad high school in Newark, NJ.

As a child besides working, Tamar took joy in going to church and S.O.K.K after school programs which only added to strengthening his faith in the Lord. His ultimate goal in life besides being the best father he could be was to become a firefighter which he already started the process of becoming. Tamar was a protector/warrior and he always wanted to make sure his family was safe and doing well.

Tamar's hobbies were watching sports, listening to music, eating, hanging with his friends and family, singing, shopping and spreading the word of god to anyone he talked to. He was the biggest fan of Shawn Micheals (wrestler), The ninja turtles, and Tupac. His favorite sports teams were the New York Giants and the L.A Lakers. He also practiced and studied kickboxing. He loved to travel.
