Obituary

Garry Cecil Parris was born on November 25th, 1949 in Trinidad, West Indies to the late Cecil and Carmen Parris. He died Monday, September 20th, 2021.

He left Trinidad in the 1960s and graduated from Morris High School in the Bronx. After High School he joined the Army Reserve and was stationed in Europe. After the Army Reserve, he worked as a Counselor for the Department of Corrections, and subsequently worked for the New York-Presbyterian Hospital, where he retired after 26 years as an Executive Chef.

Garry was beloved by all. He was a kind, generous, and selfless man. Everyone, and anyone who has met or spent time with him, knows his sweet nature, his patience, his humor, his willingness to be a friend, to support and to love – in his own kind of way.

Psalms 46

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High. vGod is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early. The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted. vThe Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah. Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire. Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.
