Obituary

On November 9, 2000, at 6:15 a.m., Khasiem J. Wooten was born at Bronx Lebanon Hospital to parents Barbara Allen and Gregory Wooten. As a child, he relocated to Elmont, New York where he attended pre-kindergarten at Alden Terrace School. He then graduated and went to Dutch Broadway Elementary, then attended Elmont Memorial High School and played basketball. He received plenty of trophies and had dreams of becoming a pro basketball player. He transferred to Sewanaka High School where he received his High School Diploma. Jafar loved music and enjoyed writing rap lyrics and had inspirations of being a music artist. He also loved cars and talked about one day owning a car business. He enjoyed going out with family and friends. During his high school days, he met the love of his life, Autumn Jackson. Their beautiful union created a sweet baby girl, Kyree.

His love for his grandmother, Lillian Wooten, was second to none. They were affectionately known as BATMAN and ROBIN. Where she goes he goes and where he goes she goes. They were inseparable.

He leaves to cherish fond memories Mother; Barbara Allen, and Jackie Wooten; six sisters; Miracle Allen, Latecia Smith, Kademba Smith, Shamecca Smith, Zanea Porta and Khaja Wooten; three brothers, Sheheen Allen, Ramel Smith and Kwali Wooten; six uncles, Micheal Wooten, Junior Wooten, Harry Wooten, Ernest Long, Anthony Askins and Rashawn McCormica; one aunt, Monique Parsley; and a host of family and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
