

Unpacking All My Luggage

Lord, I'm finally unpacking all my luggage
 No more pain folded inside My Duffel Bags
 My Socks are still clean from you Carrying Me
 Maybe a cry stain upon a couple Rags
 My Suitcase is no longer heavy
 The Stress in My Heart is gone
 Baby "Brooklyn" is smiling up at Me
 My Family is singing songs
 Mama, I'm getting rid of All of this Luggage
 no more Worries hiding beneath the Small Zippers
 Even Heaven has a "Big & Tall" Section
 The Angels are fitting Me for Fall Slippers
 Plus, My Smile is Brighter than ever
 These Dreads are Sparkling Fine
 Even God has a sense of humor,
 His jokes are better than mine!!!

Tell all My Siblings, I don't need anymore of this luggage
 This Flight doesn't require a "carry on"
 Me and "Boon" been talking since I got here
 Our Conversations continue to Carry on...
 And carry on... And carry on...
 It feels so Good to unpack this luggage
 So please wipe that tear from your Eye
 The Lord has confiscated all my Sins
 Because there's no baggage claim in the Sky!!!

Obituary

Bashir Lamar Bell was born in Newark, New Jersey on January 21, 1984 to Mildred E. Bell and Dennis Singleton. He departed this life on September 21, 2021.

Bashir was a member of Ben Hedgebeth Temple Church of Christ Disciples of Christ Church Inc... He was baptized at a young age, and sang in the Jr. Choir for a number of years.

Bashir was educated in the Newark public school system. While attending the Newark public school system, he worked with the summer youth program. Bashir went back to school to receive his high school diploma in 2010, he went on to work at Wakefern, Hello Fresh, and Buy Rite auto parts.

Bashir was a loving companion, son, grandson, father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend. Anyone that came in contact with Bashir fell in love with him instantly. He had a smile that would light up a room, he was just a joy to be around, especially with his jokes.

Bashir leaves to mourn his passing, his mother Mildred E. Bell, and his father Dennis Singleton; his companion; his daughter Brooklynn Bell; five brothers Ako, Jamaal, and Shahid Bell, Larry (his best friend); and Isiah Stevens, and Jaleel White; two sisters Kenyatta Brisbon Bell [one brother in-law Glen Brisbon], and Brittany Bell; two grandmothers Rose Chow, and Jessie Singleton; nine nephews Marquise, Ako Jr., Karon, Kuasere, Josiah, Jamaal Jr., Jayden, Jerrell and Destin; four nieces Tanyah, Kelisa, Norah, and Sa’Rah; five aunts Wanda, Sheila, Sharlene, Fern, and Feliz; six uncles Michael, Andrew, Jerome, Keith, Travis, and Otis; and a host of other aunts, uncles, family, and friends.

Bashir was preceded in death by his late brother Kamahal A. Bell, and his late uncle Malcolm J. Williams.
